The New BDR! Now in its third year, the Bristol Dianetic Review monthly has a new cover and new format. Completely independent with analytical and informative articles on all the latest developments in dianetics and scientology, critical reviews of books, correspondence and news from all quarters, this 28 page monthly is a necessity for all who wish to keep in touch with the rapid progress of scientology and to learn more about the subject.

More and more people are reading and enjoying BDR and, as its circulation grows throughout the world, it becomes a better medium for communication among those who are interested in dianetics and scientology. We hope, too, that you will use our columns as a means of expressing your opinions and comments, for BDR welcomes all who have something to say either in articles or letters.

First class value @ 1/3d per copy (20 cents), 13/- per annum ($2.00). Can you afford to be without BDR? Send 1/3d NOW for a specimen copy.

From time to time we publish supplements containing articles from American and other papers. The following are available from stock:

- No.1 "Single Word Therapy", "Some Ideas on Affinity", "On Nobility of Character" and "The Sympathy Factor in Processing".
- No.2 "Three Steps to Theta Clear" and "Illusion Processing".
- No.5 Three original case histories and an Illusion Technique.
- No.7 "Information for Would-Be Optimums" by H.R. (Wing) Angell.
- No.8 "Report of the International Congress of Dianeticists and Scientologists held at Philadelphia, Sept. 30th - Oct. 4th, 1953".

All price 1/- post free, except No.7 which is 2/-.

Also BDR Supplement A. "Notes on the Phoenix Congress Tapes" being brief notes on the lectures and condensed transcript of the processing sessions given at the London Congress. Intended as an aide-memoire for limited circulation only to those who have heard the tapes.
22 pages 5/- (90 cents) post free.
