THE WAY UP

Years ago, when I was a "searcher," I thought that I was looking for a "path upward." Then, after I entered Dianetics/Scientology, and practiced overtly what Ron preached, and I began to be ME-- in my uninverted universe, I realized more and more that there was no single path-- no simple answer. I realized that it was a climb, first, up the foothills of the mountain to, at least, get above the fog which covered the jungle. Ron pointed the way, and I would have remained in the murk-- and muck-- if he had not done so.

But, by DOING, BEING-- not following-- I got a few peeks of the sunlight; even a peek at the peak. I was able to see what occurred wherein one surrendered to the other determinisms of the "great ones," and organized claimers to only true path to salvation. They were like sacred barkers at a carnival, selling rides on their particular ski chair lift. The lift went up into the murk, but, before they reached the sunlight, they went into a cavern in the mountain.

Some of these caverns were quite dark. Some were about same as represented, had a heavenly appearance. The one with a lot of buddhist barkers was real complex, with a lot of lifts and stairs on the inside. One thing that they all had in common was a chute. Somehow, at some point everyone got chuted, and the next thing they knew, they were back in the jungle.

So, when Ron started barking like the rest of these boys-- sounding like Dr. L. Ron Hubbard, etc.-- I took my nickel off of his drum, started to really use my own Theteyes to look.

As of now, know what it looks like? There is no easy path up. There is not a path. It is like Ron said; that everything in MEST is a trap, a Theta trap. Each says, "Look at me. Fixate on me." And when you do you cannot withdraw.... until you stop resisting and let go. Why, it would have been impossible for Hubbard to have built up his Int. Org. without making it, him, every action a Theta trap. "You need training." "Come to ST. Hill." "Come to the Hubbard Guidance Center for processing." Practically everything that is done, is done in terms of causing you to resist something.

Now then, you can keep on resisting it, but this is not comfortable. So, you either succumb to it, or withdraw from it. Your option, compulsion.

This type of operation, and everything about it is MEST, inverted universe level. The prime law-- Karmic-- is that nothing operating in the physical universe can be totally good or bad-- and that holds for most other dichotomies. So, do not expect Dr. Hubbard, Huborg or anything about it to be either good or bad.

Now then, you understand that all that I am doing is to get you to resist me more than you resist Huborg, so I can then take over. HO.HO.HOHO!!! So, be real CAREFUL and SUPPRESS any bad thoughts about me, and if you do not write me and tell me off-- you might be the victim of a withhold. But remember any bad thought you have about me is because of something simply awful, terrible that maybe perhaps you might have done to me.

Do you think I am trying to destroy Scientology-- Huborg Scientology? I have two things to tell you. 1. I could not, if I would. 2. I would not if I could. I respect Ron Hubbard's rights: 1. To his own game, as what he says-- as indicated by what he DOES, more than what he says-- that his game is; 2. His right to have an opponent. Up to now, he has received very unfair treatment. It was great, about ten years ago. Look, Time, others really came clean with the needed resistance-- even the AMA, at first. Then, it was as if his entire environment betrayed him-- IGNORED him. Things languished for a while. I put my shoulder to the wheel, and in my small way helped some. Then came the FDA-- like manna from heaven. Almost immediately, they could not get enough auditors to take care of the mobs that besieged HGC for auditing. Then, again, betrayal. FDA sort of dropped the case, or something. Australia fumed, and the centers prospered. Up to this writing, the Post story has not, as yet, appeared. Wouldn't it be wonderful if should really blast Ron and Sci! If so, it would probably be necessary to recruit even old HDAs to handle the horde. Such are the ways of MEST... and right in line with what Ron has told us.

Ron has told us 1. All Thetans are different in potential and in abilities. 2. The more that we become ourselves, as Thetans, the more individual we are. But, Dr. L. Ron Hubbard and Huborg treat them on the identity level. At least, that is the way it seems to me. All of the seats on his ski lift look the same. One thing about them-- they are certainly wonderful seats-- as compared to the competition. They sure pull you up out of the jungle. But, the lift does not seem to be completed. There is an abandoned spur which had a label "clear" on it. The oldest one which never got beyond the drafting board went off to somewhere out in space. There is another one with a bunch of egyptian symbols, pictures of black leopards, black snakes and black ban-tus on it, labelled "Africa." Another picture there of a "king-of-the-world." It looks an awful lot like Dr. L. Ron Hubbard. There is one thing I do not like about Ron's game. He is the only player; everyone else is a piece or broken piece.... but, mind you, a nice shiny, radiant piece, or broken piece.

Ron told us, "gott climb." I been climbing. First of all; if you want to climb, you are strictly on your own. Takes courage. It was blamedlonesome for me-- but you will have company. I have extended myself time after time, tumbled, got really clobbered. A final result is the gaining of the immunity to clobbering... gradiently obtained.

The fact that Ron has been able to expose so much knowledge, been able to do so much real good, in pointing our noses the right direction, does indicate that there is probably a lot of naughty-naughty that he has to compensate for. There is nothing which will cave in a bank quicker than telling a high level truth, without altering it. If done on the MEST, inverted universe plane it would, of course, as-iss. So, in order to comm at all on this level, it is necessary to add some sort of lie, in order to cause it to persist. These are the "hookers" that I have been talking about. He gave us fair warning, in the Phila. Doc. Course, when he said to do anything you wanted to do re: "Hubbard's opinions." He also discouraged taking notes. If the comm is Thetan to Thetan, without via, the truths can be duplicated at receipt point-- or same space occupied-- and the necessary hookers and dunnage will fall away.... the truth will be shared.

One hooker is his saying, "Do not look for me on your tracks--" with the statement to the effect that he has not been around. Not so. Unless you swallow this hook, you will probably find him. In fact, this may a cause of your being attracted into Scientology. Now, Ron was being himself in his uninverted universe when he gave us the beautiful truths. As himself, inverted, as Hubbard--Dr. L. Ron Hubbard, he has given manifestation by his actions of seeking to "justify" his past pattern, by dramatizing it.

That which I am now saying is not only from my own lookingness, know-ingness, but is found by others who look. It, of course, could not be found if such could not be confronted-- as would be the case if one were on the identification band relative to Dr. Hubbard. One might call the getting of engrams from past track as a secondary lookingness. Primary, lookingness wherein one Theta-determinedly decides to be at a certain time and place-- and just looks. This is available AFTER one handles masses in vacuum cleaning procedure-- is cause over them.

BY GRANTING RON BEINGNESS ONLY AS BEING RON, WE CAN THEN ASSIST HIM TO BE HIMSELF AS BEING HIS UNINVERTED UNIVERSE. BY PROPITIATING, SUCUMBING TO DR. L. RON HUBBARD IS HELPING NEITHER HIM, NOR ONE'S SELF. This holds, of course regarding our attitudes to others-- even including me.

But, the dynamics other than the first are involved. In last issue, the first was discussed-- tho not completely. So-- we will move along.

THE UNINVERTED SECOND DYNAMIC

PART A -- SEX. Freud has built his therapies mainly around the premise that sex is mankind's main drive. LRH practically ignores it in therapy.
So let us look at it as it is.

As I mentioned in the last issue, anything that occurs in the physical or inverted universe is a manifestation or inversion of the higher levels. At the beginning, we were totality, or static, or what you would call it. As we busted off, to use analogy, or differentiated, or dimension points differentiated further, there have been many gradients. Only the last one will be discussed in this point.

Thetans are basically sexless. As part of admission to the MEST game, each has agreed to, and has divided into two viewpoints: male and female. Now, it is the same Awareness of Awareness unit, but is separate.

Affinity is basically a like attracting like. So, we have what is recognized today in each of us-- a yearning drive for our Theta mates, the one whom we know and feel complements our beingness. This mate is really ourselves, excepting for "vive le difference."

THE CAUSING OF UNDERSTANDING OF THIS, THE RECOGNITION OF THE FACT THAT THERE IS SUCH, WITH EACH OF US; THE RE- ESTABLISHMENT OF RELATIONSHIP WITH OUR THETA MATE, IS THE PRIMARY, INITIAL STEP TOWARD STABLE UNINVERSION.

This is not just a wild dream of mine. It is something that I have been looking at for years. Other auditors have observed the same thing. Looks like friend Freud was right-- but on a Thetan basis.

Every tough case that I know of is one which is hung on some phase of discombobulation regarding Thetan partner considerations. Examples: (Those mentioned limited to those none of you could identify.)

Boy 19 years old, who up until age of around 14 was normal, happy. I ran hi on the usual CCHes, SCS, etc. Good co-operation, but nothing seemed to change anything. I decided to KNOW the answer. I asked him, "Did you know your mother prior to this lifetime?" Mammoth drop. It developed that her name was "Dolly" and that she was his wife in immediate past life, had died while young. He took his present body, to be near her. As long as he was a child, he could love her. But, when he reached puberty, came his conflict.
This seems to be the basis of the Oedipus, Electra complexes.

In another case, a girl took over the present body-- which was ill at a young age-- in order to be near her father, who was her Theta mate.

Another one was one of the many no-change cases in Scientology. His sister was his Thetan mate. This terminal had been run by many auditors, using many different processes. It would not reduce, would scarcely key-out. He, when I audited him, recognized her as such. Even vacuum cleaning procedure did nothing more than take the edge off. I had to tell him that I simply did not know of any process which was at all specific for this. He said to me, "Well, why don't you just decide to know what the answer is." "OK" I said, "Would you like to have a short session?" He would..... "Find something beautiful about (Sister)." Ran that about 30 minutes. Good key out. Yeah--- thinkingness processes are useful sometimes. He considered the relationship to be ugly... and in THIS relationship, ugliness is intolerable.

That same pattern carries: those who cannot have beauty are those who feel, by some of a possible million ways that this relationship is ugly. It tends to spread thruout everything else in their lives.

Any MEST identification is but a mechanical attempt to find a substitute for, inversively, this beingness identification. In order to do this, we bring about a valence which we call ourselves. This substitution for ourselves is also used to confront with-- but it cannot confront our uninverted beingness/doingness, so we feel that we cannot confront it either.

So we pretend, to take a substitute mate, for this lifetime. But way down, we know that there is only one true mate-- but where? In this despair, we tend to drift toward the white side-- become engulfed in beautiful sadness. And that is just what beautiful sadness is. As this becomes intolerable, we fling ourselves into desperate action. It is indicated that every rough, tough, hardened criminal inside of or outside of the law, is one who has totally inverted on the 2nd dynamic. They totally consider this area entirely unfrontable. Sometimes, they will even endeavor to destroy it for others.

About four years ago, I published an article to the effect that if one knew the identity of person who disapproved of one's rock, and whose rock one disapproved of-- the whole thing would blow. This has been true everytime I have run it since. It has also been found that it is one's Thetan partner who exchanged disapprovals. The rock is merely the first domestic quarrel since division.

As might well be imagined, the patterns of relationships between two Thetans extending to perhaps trillions of years weaves almost infinite randomness. None bears much similarity to any other. There are no overt acts which hang in time which at all compare in magnitude to the ones which we consider we have committed against this one being. The one I mentioned some time ago, relative to the discovery of vacuum cleaning procedure is one of these.

You will recall, I mentioned that I had just finished an intensive with the gal who was my wife in immediate past life. She had come into Scn. with a goal of getting rid of an energy mass which was located to the left of her head, just above her shoulder. We had addressed this, but it did not blow. So, I decided to KNOW the answer. I asked her to mock up a black cube with a silver blade stuck into the center of the top of it at an angle. She did. I then asked her to unmock it, push the space which contained the mockup thru the space above her shoulder. She did. It came out filled up with black guck. We did this a number of times-- and the energy mass blew. That was the beginning of vacuum cleaning procedure. Incidentally, there was nothing in the space, even when we started-- so there was nothing to see. We have found out later that this is what we refer to as a void.

A few months before this, while I was co-auditing, ran an incident almost 12 trillion years back there, wherein I had quarreled with this same Thetan, and she had put the hex, or something, on me-- took my rock, a perfect cube, made it black and put this silver blade into it. She had been stuck with it ever since. I have hit many, many others, of a similar nature.

PRESENT TIME CONFLICTS. As of now, we ARE ourselves, as Thetans, owning our own space, games universe, uninverted universe. It is as such that we are cognizant of our Thetan partner. To the body personality, the thinkingness this life identity--everything having to do with our true beingness is a threat. It is convinced that, as we become ourselves, our thinkingness, present lifetime personality will become obviated, will die. True. Further, we have become convinced that if we do not have this pseudo-personality to confront with, we will, have to confront ourselves. So, this partner shows up in real this lifetime life-- and POWEY!!!!!!

One such couple just simply cannot get along with each other-- and they cannot get along without each other. They love each other dearly, but at the same time seek to destroy each other. Added to above-- as we seek each other out bodytime after bodytime, we experience engrams together, have postulated cycles of action interrupted-- hanging there unfinished.

Some of these might go like this: One of the partners might withdraw, either temporarily, or because the other one had a body too young, old, ugly, etc. Or it could just be some source of disagreement... or... or. The offended party feels that their very beingness is being invalidated. So, they invert, seek revenge-- abandon responsibility for the space in their's and partner's games universe, which they shared.

It is likely that the abandonment of the responsibility for this space is the first "Achilles Heel," which allows ourselves to become subjected to implantation. Sure, each of us did it originally-- as a reaction to a real or a fancied DED' (unjustified offense). But all that has occurred in this area, after its first abandonment, perhaps, some trillions of years ago is the doing of 1. The reactive mechanism with which we have compulsively identified, 2. MEST incidence-- karma, etc. 3. Direct implantations by others seeking to cut us down below their "size" so that they can then control us.

1. above refers to the this lifetime personality which we bring about to confront with-- so that we, ourselves do not have to confront. 2. is a honey. As affinity, we seek out our true Thetan partner bodytime after bodytime. Just as I mentioned above relative to organizations, or anything in MEST, in this case, the delightful pleasure which comes from just the association with our true Thetan partner, must karmically be compensated for by ensuing pain. By all available evidence, it just works out that way.

And it gets tougher and tougher and worsen and worsen. That which hangs in time is the negative, the engrammic. So, we meet in this bodytime, our Thetan partner-- and the terrific, powerful engram chain keys in. But, we as ourselves in our uninverted universe recognize this Beingness, and accept it for just what it truly is-- a complement to our own Beingness. This, indeed, sets up a really terrific conflict.

It is certainly true that, herein, I am presenting problems, rather than solutions. But, I assure you, it is there. I have been aware of it for years, but said nothing, as I felt that it might be merely incidental to the people I have been auditing, and to myself. But bringing of a true problem to light is the first step leading to solution. I invite you to let me know what experiences, data you have had in this regard.

PART B-- FAMILY. One thing we know for sure: Storks had nothing to do with bringing babies or Thetans. There is a whole lot more truth about being nothing more than a glint in your father's eye. Yep, it seems that that is all that you are.... a thought stuck in a symbol. If you look, male Thetans, after division consider themselves to be somethings that look like decorative torches; females, fancy ovals. This symbology sure has held right down the line. When we first started looking at this, and the question was asked, "Who individuated you?" the reply was always, "I did."

Now then, how could anyone create themselves as an identity! The answer is simple-- because they did it. We are, each of us, DIFFERENTIATIONS OF THETA. When Ron said that the more able we become, the more individual we become-- nothing could be truer. As a differentiation of Theta-- an individuation, we are still as much Theta as we ever were, but have just assumed the viewpoint of the symbol. Separateness comes about as we less and less consider ourselves to be Theta and identify with somethingnesses, gradiently.

In full truth, any one of us can be at any time, any place, be anyone, at that time and place, that we so postulate. Sure, it's all illusion. And we take it all so seeriously. It is only the damned lies that are solid.

Like, once upon a time a guy who was named Alantsia-- that was me-- created a mockup somewhat in the likeness of his own symbol, and said, "You are." Know what-- I was. So I said so-- "I am." Then I, as the newly individuated "Alanta" said to me as Alantsia, "You are." Then I as Alantsia replied, "I am." But, now I gotta admit-- I ain't omniscient. There was a gal Thetan, named Decobray-- or maybe she would like it better spelled Decobret, whom I think had something to do with it. Now, if MEST is an inversion of this, she-- as Alantsia's Thetan partner, sure did.

Then something happened, like maybe pulling out a rib, or something-- and the next thing I knew-- there was another Thetan-- Kitima, my Thetan partner. Been playing around ever since.

Thus cometh abouteth the Thetan family tree. It seems that the Thetan individuated does not have quite the potential freedom of ability that the parent(s) have. But the "You are." "I am." bit extends down thru seven generations. Below this, it is just, "You are." "I am." These beingnesses are not awareness of awareness beingnesses; they are just awareness beingnesses. This applies to the vast majority of earth's population today. I am told that someone asked Hubbard during the 20th ACC, "How do you account for the increase in population on earth today-- where do the Thetans come from?" He replied, "Well, there is less game." As Ron emphasized in the Philadelphia Congress-- you are a very select crew.

Yep, it is a smooth gradiency from the Supreme Creator, down to the solidest of MEST. And even thee-- thou art a creator even as of this moment. That is.... to the degree that you are not stuck in thinkingness.

I remember, about five years ago I was working with a gal in another city peeking and poking. One afternoon, I felt another presence in the room, located it, asked, "Who is that?" She acted embarrassed, "Oh, that's Moxie." "Who the devil is Moxie?" I asked. "Oh, just someone I created to run errands for me." With that, she gave it some instruction, sent it off.

I decided to create a being of my own. So, I mocked up a handsome male body in a knee length Roman garb, told him, "You are." Had him walk around the room, simply by giving him the command. Then I sent him up to a friend in Detroit, who could comm, told him to say, "Hello," when he got my friend's attantion, then to come back to me.

50- 7...

The next morning I was auditing, when I began to feel an itch. Now, friend in Detroit and I had a telepathy bit going-- and we would place an itch on the other, by mocking up red, with white dots, then black alternately, just like a telephone bell. I could not comm. then, thought he was being bothered, so I called my creation, whom I called "Frenespa," after a space planet area I once roamed in, back; told him to go out west and count the trees.

That evening, the gal who created "Moxie" asked me where Frenespa was. I feigned ignorance. She looked. "Hey-- he is out in Colorado, in a forest, just walking around gaping."

Next day, I decided to create another entity-- by myself. Mocked up a nude woman. Had both of them doing various things for me. Then on the way back to Farmington, I stopped off to see my telepath friend. While we were talking, Frenespa appeared. Again, I feigned-- "Do you feel there is someone in the room with us?" I asked. "Yeah, right there," he said pointing to Frenespa. "Well, who is he?" "You should know-- you created him-- and who is the naked gal with him?" Joke on me. I had not seen her for the last several days-- had not seen her there. These things really do happen. Got other stories-- but no space.

Does it startle you that the things Ron has talked about can actually be done here and now? Well, it seems that each of us has individuated beings, while we were at higher postulate potential than any of us now own. These, in turn have individuated others-- again, down to the seventh generation. It seems that below this, it is merely a matter of duplication.

Those we have individuated are members of our Thetan family. They bear Thetan characteristics similar to our own, but own less ability potential. There is the same feeling between family members that exists in the inversion, the earth physical family. To one who looks, this family relationship is discernible. One has a similar feeling toward the family members of one's Thetan partner. Sometimes, it is confusing.

It is as one gets reality upon these gradient relationships, both above and below, that one is able to expand beingness. Like attracts like, and these family members are truly more like yourself. It is at the beginning of games that partners, family members regain reality upon one another. As one no longer feels alone-- he is ethics, is the more willing to BE himself, univerted, and to own his own universe. It is the bridge to the other dynamics. The 3rd is made up of your Thetan peers and their families. The 4th-- all Thetans running bodies. The 5th-- all entities. Even the 6th contains life. The 7th-- other Thetans of higher magnitude-- your bridge, gradiently to the 8th, the Supreme Creator. Know what? There is no path right up that mountain to the peak. It goes round and round it-- something like a spiral-- an ascending spiral. It looks like a long way-- but I believe it will be worth it. YOU gotta do it.

There is one couple, who never have made up after the rock disagreement. She went off, individuated a large number of Thetans, who clung together, as dramatized by bees-- with her as the queen bee. Again, it sure does seem true that everything here and now is but a dramatization of something on track, and/or an inversion of spirituality. When he returned to make up, she showed little or no interest in him, had all of her attention, interest on her "brood." He considered himself to be grossly invalidated. They battled-- and haw! He finally retired, began to accumulate other Thetans who had separated from their direct, gradient link to the Supreme Creator, Totality-- their Thetan partner, and Thetan family. In order to recruit, he and his helpers sought out partners in the state of temporary withdrawal-- as is usual with all Thetan partners, between cycles-- implanted that the partner had committed gross DEDs against them, etc. They would then implant them to actually commit gross DEDs against their partner. I am describing Black Side activity, which IS separateness. Separateness is but an apparenacy, a lie, compulsion, fixation. It is brought about by adding masses, then saying that we are the masses. These masses will tend to drift away from the body, unless reinvigorated by the key-in processes, such as the R-212 type; and implanted commands renewed by thinkingness type of "implant" processes. Each of these and other thinkingness processes create a small space close in, but make the bank very solid just outside of this space. This is the physiology of the inverted universe. Cor. to Axiom 37--The added postulate, as an alter-issness renews persistence. Our uninverted universes are first postulate universes. You change something from red to green. You uncreate it re-create it. It will persist solely because you say it will persist. You are in full dominion in your uninverted universe.

Hubbard warned us about separateness, about six years ago. But, as he has for his purpose, causing Huborg to exist, by making it solid, I feel that he could not go any further in emphasis than he did, karmicly. I can talk more like Ron, because, like Ron-- I am not trying to make anything solid. But if I do not put in some niffnawing about Huborg in an issue--and I feel uncomf-able!! Actually, Huborg is neither good or bad. It is just doing a damned good job of what it is doing. It is helping people bring their banks into a control-able randomness. This is their next step upwards. But, it is still only one step--and ten years is a long time to spend on this one step. ANY ADDRESS TO THE GRADIENCIES OF O.T. CAN BE SUCCESSFUL, ONLY IF YOU IN DOING THIS ARE BEING YOURSELF AS YOU, not your inverted thinkingness valence, AND ARE OPERATING IN YOUR UNINVERTED UNIVERSE.... AND SO, ON ALL EIGHT DYNAMICS.
