SECTARIANISM

My Merriam Webster defines the agreed upon significance of this word as a party, faction; those holding a specific religious creed or practice; the disciples of a particular philosophical school; or, in society or state, the order, party, class or rank.

Reference is herein made to a sectarianist as one who represents that a solution/dissolution can be obtained by addressing only a part of, or phase of a problem. This, of course, includes all religionists--all of those who "believe-IN" who are owned by, "WE (or Our Great Teacher) has the only answer."

Sectarianism is practically invariably instituted as a VERTICAL SECTARIANISM. Herein, some individual recalls a segment of truth, or perhaps some higher beingness channelled it to him-- or both, or----- . He reminds us that this is something that we already know, but have forgotten. Great. This is a contribution toward assisting us to remove our obstacles to BEING.

But, then, he-- just as with any first postulation-- tries to make a game out of it, make a big deal out of it. and so forth. He makes as if THE TRUTH HE DISCOVERED WAS THE WHOLE TRUTH, THE TOTAL ANSWER. He inflates its importance. He makes as if any other source of truth is tributary to his truth, or, more usually, is a lie.

As he departs from the purity of the original inception, he gradiently moves from VERTICAL SECTARIANISM to HORIZONTAL SECTARIANISM. He begins with the noble motivation of wanting to share his beautiful truth; ends up by trying to suck in more suckers. It becomes more organized and solid.

A HORIZONTAL SECTARIANISM is a solid, binding religious system which is fixed at some level of gradient relative truth. It elevates those below this level of truth. It affixes them at this level, traps them if they endeavor to rise above this level.

Examples of this are to be found wherever you would look. Buddhism, Christianity or, more recently with Scientology.

I remember that in my first writing, "An invitation to Scientology", 1953 I referred to the fact that Scientology had an unlimited frame of reference. The high order of truth found in the basic science is understandable in terms of anything found in the physical universe, or, for that matter in any other vertical secularism. All of the science of scientology is explicable in terms of ANY datum in scientology.

The same can be accurately said regarding Amprinistics. It is utterly consistent within itself-- also with the truths of the science of scientology. They complement one another. I say this because I have thoroly investigated both, have found this to be true. I am certain that I am right.

Now, to divert a moment. I wish to refer you to 2nd T, issue #43, pp.1, by Monica Saxon, subject "Sharing." I represent that when I say something with surety, I do it with the feeling, "I have looked, found it to be true for me." I do it with the feeling that if you or anybody else looked, you also would see it as I have. IF WE BOTH DID THIS AT THE 7TH DYNAMIC, SPIRITUAL, WE-NESS LEVEL

THIS MOST CERTAINLY WOULD BE TRUE. I do it with the intention of sharing.

If what I say differs from any fixation which you might have, looking at it can be easily avoided by your saying, "WHAT IS TRUE FOR YOU IS TRUE FOR YOU, AND WHAT IS TRUE FOR ME IS TRUE FOR ME." This is the MEST, separateness philosophy. "Each man is an island unto himself." It is the sectarianism expressed by Berner, the loner, in his diatribe agin Harry Thompson, Amprinistics. It is the acme of "self-determinism" It is the peak of achievement in Huborg Scn. Excepting.....

When we get, "WHAT IS TRUE FOR ME IS TRUE FOR YOU," with the imposition of force, we are at the mechanical, stimulus-response level of the religious, political or intellectual despot. Herein, most horizontal sectarianism is found. "Certainty is out there" as a Hitler, a Mao, a Stalin, an Amon. And, don't you know-- to the victim, their peculiar despot is beneficent.

When I say these things with positiveness, it is because I feel that it is right. And, to repeat: if you believe anything I say, solely because I say it-- as my effect, and I hear about it, your 2nd Terminals will be cut off. If you can feel that you are sharing my truths with me, feely, and subject to your own later investigation-- great.

You see-- I am not sectarian. Again: I believe that a problem can be(dis) solved only if the entire problem is addressed. A vertical sectarianism is incomplete. Both the vertical sectarianism of the science of scientology, and the horizontal sectarianism of Huborg are incomplete. And the jealous gods who proprietor each will hate me for saying this. So? That is their problem.

I have paid Hubbard well for my training. I have paid Jack Horner $10/day for the time I spent in his class; Harry Thompson, $15/day for the time I spent in his class. And what for? Being reminded of data which I already know. For this service, I am most grateful. I will do nothing to deny them as the discoverers of Scn./Amprinistics. I have been taught, and have paid a fair price for their teaching services. I OWN EVERYTHING THAT I ACCEPT AS TRUE.

If I find out something thru my own knowingness/lookingness/investigation I print it herein-- do not even copyright it. My only purpose is to share it. I do not compartmentalize it, limit it by saying, "Because I just happened to be in a situation which allows me to glimpse some of the things which we all know, but have forgotten, you had better do what I say!" It would be just as silly for someone who happened to wake up first in the morning to belay the sleepers with, "Awake. I have found the dawn. I own it. I have copyrighted it. You, too, can see it only if you look at it thru my slitted, colored glasses-- of course, for a price." Each sectarian has a different tint of glass. Dr. LRH tells you that you got to perceive only by putting on his copyrighted blindfold-- and HE will tell you what is there. Anyone who tries to peek for himself is a squirrely suppressive!!!!

Continuance of analogy--So, the brightness of the dawn of the truths of Spiritual Actuality is too intense for our atrophied lookingness. Gradients are necessary. So, we content ourselves with the accounts of others, then look thru very smoky glasses, then colored ones, reflections, etc. OK. But know that ANY other-determined presentation is nothing more than a via. It is something to be understood, then proceed on to the next sectarian presentation of truth which seems appropriate to YOU. Like Ron has said of Scn., it is a tool to be used. It is not a hole to be crawled into.

A primary principle of the rules of this MEST universe is: Nothing is good or bad-- only if you get stuck into it. Compulsion, and at least equally inhibition, are the obvious stickers. In any sectarianism, the random stickers or aberrations are the imposed limitation and controls of thought and action. One progresses to the degree that he OWNS his thoughts, and is responsible for his actions.

Today, there are adequate tools available, and a few lonesome people are using them the best they can. These are the graduates from sectarianism(s). Their progress is limited by the absence of a communication medium. They go so far then face dwindling REALITY of agreement-- and flounder a bit.

There is no group in which the untrammelled use of any to all of the tools which will disencumber the Thetan-Determinism of each member is freely allowed. Each organization has its own sectarian approach--ONLY.

Know what? I think that something should be done about this. A society should be founded which has as its purpose the free interchange of communication, and should publish the findings of ANYONE who has a contribution to knowledge, or technique. When someone finds out something new, different, interesting, there is no medium available for him to share it, right now.

Again, like with Scientology(the sectarianism) and scientology (the science), there are plenty of those who have been producing good results; but who do not go along with DR LRHs. suppression of individual ability and initiative. These auditors would certainly would be more comfortable, certain, and aspiring if they were a member of a true third dynamic. I feel that it is these people who perpetuate Ron's work: AN AUDITOR IS AS EFFECTIVE AS HE IS WORKING ON HIS OWN DETERMINISM—IS STRICTLY IN HIS OWN VALENCE.

But, in the main, the purpose of this non-sectarian society would be to impart knowledge of ALL sectarianisms-- vertical sectarianisms, that is-- that the member might select that which seems to him to be most effective and appropriate for his immediate progress. This will, of course, aid in the dissemination of each of them.

You know, it seems to me that something should be done about this. As I agree that something should be done about this, something will be done about this.

The initial phase is to put something of a tangible nature in focus. The next phase is to form the group which will accept or reject or amend each of the initial proposals. I will initiate PRIOR to the group formation, then I intend to participate as a member of the group.

So, please understand that everything that is said herein is but tentative. It is just my viewpoint put out for you to share-- if you elect to do so. It is just a first blueprint, which will be made solid in the building of the group.

Well, the first thing is the name. It has gotta be called something. A name for such a society will be as effective as its sounds both erudite and obnoxious. This will engender the resistance so necessary for survival. The best I have been able to do so far is----

SCIOGNOSTICS

Both Scio and gnostic means "know" or "knowingness." Feel free to put on your own significances. Lots of possibilities.

There seems to be a pattern for groups which is natural to this universe. It is found about anywhere one would care to look. Good, fun games are created, operated by a group of twelve, and a coordinator. This has been found by many in auditing, in the Venus Council, higher councils. It is manifested mundanely by everything from Christ and the twelve apostles to a deck of playing cards. In the latter, the ace is the "loner," is at the bottom of the deck during the fun part of the game. Then, as the game deteriorates, the council rescinds responsibility, the ace moves in-- ends up by making the game an ego-centric despotism. Our present game is at this latter phase.

The new age, those who have looked have perceived to be incepting. The nadir, the low point of this extremely long cycle of action is passed. Things have been run so long-- many thousands of years-- on mechanics, automaticities, by these loners, or aces, that we have assumed this to be a natural, permanent state. Every implant I have ever contacted has had as its basis the goal of re-enforcing persistence of downbeat, mechanical, black/white, MEST control over THETA. It seeks to drive every Thetan down to the same low controllable level-- each time under the pretext of helping him. It is in this manner that it maintains survival for itself.

But, please understand, they and every being and every thing that IS does operate under Natural Law. With solids/karma, good balances evil. The councils who spiritually directed this solar system slipped, allowed a planet to go out of control, and it got so bad that it was destroyed. Enter shame, blame, regret. Exit Spiritual control. Enter black/white, ace (Judas Ascariot) control....and downward spiral effect.

Is the above "inspirational" writing, maybe channelled in mysteriously from ?????. NO. I have found some evidence of it being true in the auditing of every preclear I have audited in the past ten years. About a score have actually gotten the "Venus Council." With some of the others, the dissolving of the masses of the engram of the destruction of this planet were definitely recognizable, while most of them knew what it was. Most importantly: this is all very real to me, as I contacted it first along with Refa Postel.

A good no-cause, non-confront reaction at this point would be: "He is stuck on past track, and is trying to bring back something that is dead and gone!" Oh yeah? Please understand--

1. No one would ever claim that we could handle this lifetime better if we had no recall prior to, say, an hour ago. Yet, these same people, altho they recognize that present bodytime, is a comparably far less time span in Spiritual lifetime--- claim that the understanding of any games, cycles, relationships, occurrences is not pertinent, important, or even helpful in understanding and effecting Spiritual gain.
2. The purpose of the bank is to insure "survival" by warning us of danger, when we encounter something which, by bank reaction is "the same as" some dangerous or painful past situation. When this occurs in present time, it moves in "restitulates" or "keys in." So, anything from the past seems horrendous.
3. But it is not. It has been more than 99% of the time one heck of a lot of fun. We can really be ourselves, as creative games playing Thetans to the extent that this verity becomes real to us. Altho present time is a necessary stable datum, we can become stuck in it, thereby debilitated, just as much as we would be, if we were impaled by any other stable datum or other fixation.

4. Analogy: If I worked as a plant superintendent for the Ajax Rubber Co., and I ended this cycle, took a position with the Acme Rubber Co.; would I be better off if I could recall my experiences and capabilities while with the Ajax Rubber Co? Silly question! By the same token, it is optimum for each of us to know thru recall our potential. If we consider ourselves to be nothing more than a this life identity with just a fuzzy idea of having greater abilities-- as 7th dynamic, Determinism-- we will just continue to be stuck in 1st dynamic limited ability.

It is, of course, quite understandable that there are longer cycles than the planetary day or year, lunar month, etc. Such cycles have been run with the development of a materialistic dominance which just seems to spin faster and faster--more bodies, more comfort, etc. At last, if this is not ended abruptly, and the light of Spirituality does not reassume cause, control to restore balance, the playing field must be destroyed. The black/white siders wheedled, deceived the Solar System (Venus) Council into delaying correction, balance on the planet then called Lucifer, until it was too late to make ANY correction, and the planet had to be destroyed. OVERPOPULATION ALONE CAN CAUSE THIS. The released low, misemotions, etc. just pall over the planet, accumulate.

So, why do I mention things which are a bit beyond you, perhaps, at this time? In order for MEST to really hold one, it has to convince one that MEST is the only game that he can have. My mention herein is for the purpose of sharing with you the findings of your Spiritual peers, to the effect that there are many levels of games above this particular MEST one. These are available, should you care to reach. I am about to initiate, and pro tem coordinate, a communication medium, in which WE will participate-- gain more and more definite reality on the nature of our Beingness, and more and more reality of the Doingness potentials of ourselves and others, as the basis of formulating much more interesting games. Further, I believe that now is an appropriate time to do this.

MOTIVATION

There is a scale of motivation which is a function of the scientology tone scale, know-to-mystery, scale, reality scales. For example, any motivation for a person in apathy would have to be other-determined, mighty solid, forceful in order to cause reaction. At the misemotion of fear, any survival threat motivates reaction. The same holds true for the representing of a symbol--and so on.

Physical comfort is achieved thru surrendery to that to which one has been conditioned. This could be called the "psychological" motivation. It has as its basis the following of the line of least resistance.

This all blends into the category which ranges from suggestion to hypnosis. An advertising man told me that up to a quite extreme limit, the more noxious and humdrum an ad is, the better the sales result. I feel that I would be motivated a whole lot more by the VW, or "Dodge rebellion" ads on TV.

So, now I ask you to write me if you would care to participate in SCIOGNOSTICS, as briefly outlined-- in ANY degree. Any motivation leading to this action must have its inception within your own Thetan-Determinism. There is no pressure, force applied by some outside determinism. Your action will be accomplished in spite of reactive bank pressure. It will warn you that any action toward Theta-Determinism is dangerous, will endeavor to veer you away from it, maybe tell you to let someone else be the pioneer.

There is no hurry. The opportunity for you to assume your place in a Theta-Determined game will be available - for a long time-- some thousands of years...And it is all just for the fun of it. If you feel that SCIOGNOSTICS is dead serious, a crusade, a sacred cause-- wait a while. You are still in the sectarian level. And I have a certainty that the basic reality gained on WE-NESS, along with the attaining of a Spiritual, or 7th dynamic viewpoint, as mentioned in issue #61--as presented by Amprinistics(HARRY THOMPSON IS THE DISCOVERER OF AMPRINISTICS.)-- is a necessary requisite to SCIOGNOSTICS.

Information on the subject of Amprinistics can be obtained from: Amprinistics 43 Chester Place Peterlee County Durham England. I have a few copies of the first lesson of the correspondence course available, and will be happy to send one to you. AMPRINISTICS SHOULD BE EXPERIENCED BEFORE IT IS EVALUATED.

This is the final issue of the Second Terminal. It will be succeeded by SCIOGNOSTICS, in similar form. Unless advised otherwise, your subscription will continue with the new format.

Subscription prices will remain the same: $2/EPOCH, 13 issues; $5/eon, of 51 issues.
